INTERNATIONAL YOUTH FOOTBALL TOURNAMENTS CROATIA

On the Istrian Peninsula

Medulin, the former fishing village, is a small town in the southern part of the Istrian Peninsula, 10 km away from Pula and has developed over the years into what is now a popular tourist destination. With a population of 82,000 people, Pula is the largest city and represents the cultural, economic and political centre of Istria. Historically it has also been Istria's administrative centre since the ancient Roman times. With its breathtaking Roman Amphitheatre, locally known as the Arena, and its special flair it is always worth a trip. Medulin with its numerous discos, bars and nightclubs is particularly attractive for young people. Take a walk on the lovely promenade or enjoy a delicious meal in one of the charming historic taverns, bars and restaurants located on the seafront. Experience Croatia and enjoy a great tournament!

The tournament is organized by NK Uljanik in cooperation with KOMM MIT.

Games are played on a sports ground with grass field and artificial turf pitches on the Croatian Adriatic coast with a unique sea view. (Should more pitches be required, games will be played on additional football grounds in the surroundings).

The teams are accommodated in self-contained apartments with up to 5 beds as well as holiday hotels in shared rooms with up to 3 beds, with shower/WC, located in Pula and Medulin. Adults accompanying the teams can book single rooms at an extra charge (one single room per 20 persons or per team in case of a smaller group).

Half board (Croatian and international cuisine) is provided throughout your stay: the first meal is dinner and the last meal is breakfast. Full board can be booked upon request.

Apart from the tournament we offer an interesting supporting programme. Whether you want to visit the cities of Pula, Porec or Rovinj, make a boat trip or go kart racing in the "Green Garden"!
